

BRITANNIA GETS THE CUP.

A Decision Which Navahoe's Owner Promptly Protests.

Narrow Margin of Two and Half Seconds in a 120-Mile Race.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—Victory has been awarded to Britannia in the race for the America's Cup, by the narrow margin of two and a half seconds over the American yacht Navahoe.

The race was started yesterday and finished this morning. The course extended from the Needles to the breakwater at Cherbourg, France, round the breakwater and back to the Needles, a distance of about 120 miles.

The Prince of Wales's yacht crossed the finish about one minute and thirty seconds ahead of Navahoe.

When the starting gun was fired yesterday Britannia was over the line. She was not compelled to return and make another start, but the difference in the time at which she and Navahoe started was deducted from Britannia's finishing time, and it was declared that Britannia had won the race by the margin given.

Mr. Carroll believed that his yacht was the winner. He at once filed a protest against the decision, and the matter was referred to the Regatta Committee.

The committee decided that the decision of the judges was correct, and the race was given to Britannia.

VIENNA, Sept. 12.—A disgraceful scene some months ago in the Bohemian Diet, caused by the political group known as Young Czechs, resulted in the temporary closing of the session by Imperial decree. Since then the political situation has become so threatening that today a decree, signed by the Imperial Ministry, and sanctioned by Emperor Francis Joseph, was published which orders the suspension of Articles 12 and 13 of the Constitutional law concerning the rights of the citizens of Prague, the capital of Bohemia, and the suburbs of that city.

The articles suspended bear more particularly upon the liberty of the press, popular assemblies and the right of trial by jury for certain offenses.

CORDAGE COMPANY'S PLANS.

James M. Waterbury to Be President of the Reorganized Trust.

District-Attorney's Investigations Still Going On.

The reorganization of National Cordage Company, which was announced last week, is now being carried out. James M. Waterbury, of New York City, is to be president of the reorganized trust.

The certificate of incorporation of the latter Company was filed yesterday in the office of the County Clerk in Jersey City, and the movement is generally understood in Wall street to be the first step in the complete reorganization of cordage affairs, in the course of which several new corporations will come into existence.

In fact, it will be the corporation into which the old company is doing a cordage business, and identified with National Cordage, will be merged.

It is said today that the National Cordage Company will be succeeded by the United Cordage Company, which will start out with a working capital of $500,000.

James M. Waterbury is named as president of the new company, and its directors will be, it is said, the three members of the reorganization committee: Waterbury, John C. Fulton, and J. E. C. Young and three others, whose names have not yet been decided upon.

John A. Tucker, John C. Fulton, and J. E. C. Young, who are the three members of the reorganization committee, are the three members of the reorganization committee.

It is reported that the new company will have a working capital of $500,000, and will be organized in the form of a corporation.

THE BEARS FOILED AGAIN.

Advance in Stocks Caused by Operators Who Are Not Known.

Sales to Realize Profits Result—Affairs in Wall Street.

The bears met with another disappointment at the Stock Exchange this morning. They went in with a determination to smash things at the opening, but prices had yielded only a fraction when it was found that the market was supported by some hidden hand.

The most careful investigation has thus far failed to reveal the identity of the operator or operators who are behind the bull movement.

Whoever they are it is evident that they are masters of the art of manipulation.

When speculation turned prices went up rapidly. Sugar, which was quoted at 10 1/2, advanced to 11 1/2, and the Chicago Gas to 11 1/2. The New York Gas to 11 1/2, and the New York Gas to 11 1/2.

The rise induced bearish trading all around and was quite a demand to cover shorts.

Although the raising of the Lohr Valley dividend created some surprise and disappointment in stock circles, it had little effect on the other anthracite coal properties. In fact, Reading, Jersey Central and Lackawanna were all higher.

The Lohr Valley dividend claims that since the announcement of the dividend the Reading Company had only a month's collections at its command to pay dividends. It is expected that the dividend could have been paid without having to borrow the money, and this the bears were sure of.

From the resolutions passed by the directors a loophole is left open for a dividend in the near future. If the situation warrants it.

The early rise in prices induced sales to realize profits and a reaction ensued. General Electric was sold down from 47 to 46 1/2, and the New York Gas to 11 1/2.

The trading, however, was extremely light and speculation presented few features of interest.

In the stock department, Louisville and Nashville commanded 1-16 for the first time since the 1st of the month. The market was quiet and the price of the stock was 1-16.

LYONS HELD WITHOUT BAIL.

He Shot Michael Collins, Who Will Probably Die.

Coroner Sent For to Take the Victim's Statement.

A coroner was sent for to Chambers Street Hospital this morning to take the ante-mortem statement of Michael Collins, who was shot in Butler's saloon, at the southwest corner of Mulberry street and Park Row, by bartender "Billy" Lyons last night.

Lyons was arraigned in the Tombs Court this morning and held without bail. He said that Collins is a Bowery tough and his employer had instructed him not to sell Collins any liquor.

Collins' sister, Mrs. Mary Collins, after a long wait, was admitted to the hospital and asked for a drink. When refused she threw Lyons claims, all the time shouting and crying.

Lyons is married, and lives at 47 Bowery. He says this is the first trouble he has ever had.

THIS IN PROHIBITION MAINE.

Estimates Show One Liquor Dealer to Every 330 Inhabitants.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 12.—The records of the Maine Revenue office at Portland, N. H., show that up to Aug. 31, 1893, 754 residents of Maine, a Prohibition State, had paid the United States special liquor dealers' tax. Of this number 287 were retail dealers, 215 were wholesale dealers, and 252 were retailers and 18 were wholesalers.

Six of the wholesalers of distilled liquors do business in Bangor and two in Portland.

There is one tax-paying liquor dealer to 330 inhabitants of the State, and if all the unlicensed peddlers were taken into account, it is likely that the proportion would be about one dealer to each 200 persons.

The coke producers have voluntarily reduced the price of coke to 10 cents per ton, which will enable many mills and factories to resume giving employment to thousands of idle men.
